This is a petition for police protection. In a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, we cannot decide the civil disputes or existence or non-existence of a pathway in the petitioner's property. Those matters are to be decided by the civil court. However, police is directed to see that law and order is maintained and lives of the parties are not endangered and if any criminal complaint is registered, that should be looked into and conduct investigation strictly according to law. With the above observations this writ petition is disposed of.
